The large-format book presents to almost 700 pages and on the basis of approximately 850 colored reproductions the extensive oeuvre of one of the greatest geniuses ever, the work of Leonardo da Vinci (1452-1519). The artistically-biographical main text, which traces on the basis of letters, contracts, diary entries and seals the work of this famous Renaissance artist and contemporary of Michelangelo and Raphael, also provides detailed interpretations of all the paintings in the context of their genesis. This publication presents the artistic oeuvre of Leonardo da Vinci, for the main text follows a detailed comprehensive catalog of works, the treats from the latest research all the important aspects of the received and lost paintings of Leonardo. The catalog raisonné is the first overall directory where conservation status, Technique, design process, provenance, of attribution and interpretation of history, as well as preparatory drawings and paintings of Leonardo's reception as well as their original documents to be comprehensively analyzed. Completing the book is a catalog of drawings by Leonardo, which represents the most extensive and certainly spectacular publication of this kind with its consistently colored and large-format photographs.
