What Will You Do with the Rest of Your Life? Neil Snyder

Many Christians have serious doubts about their ability to do what they think God is leading them to do because they don't have enough money. Money or the lack of it is not an obstacle for God. He can and will do miraculous things. All we have to do is follow His leading. If God is leading you, it's His job to provide for you. You were fearfully and wonderfully made (Psalm 139: 14), and God created you for a specific purpose. Finding that purpose should be your primary pursuit. As you will see in this book, at the end of the day, God's goals must become your goals. Once you know what they are and your role in them, then you must be willing to play your role. Even then, God is responsible for leading you to successful completion of the job He created for you and you alone. This book explains why in a clear and convincing way. It's written in a conversational style that's easy to follow. Additionally, this book touches on several serious problems in our society that influence each one of us, and it presents data indicating that significant changes are called for. By the time you finish reading this book, you will understand what some of those problems are and what you need to do to combat them. Here again, you must do your part, because things won't change for the better until we do our jobs.
