Sierra's faith has always been strong.

She believes from the start that the Lord will send her the right husband, and when her father wants her to marry the rich Mr. Worthington, she knows that he isn't the husband the Lord intended for her.

She refuses him, but her father doesn't agree with her faith and disowns her.

With her faith still strong Sierra accepts a request to go to Montana as a mail order bride and find the husband the Lord sent her.

But when she meets him she's disappointed.

How can he be the man the Lord wants her to marry? She dreads the upcoming wedding, and she meets Thomas, a man that just seems better in every way.

Maybe she was wrong.

She starts to doubt her faith and the path that has been set out before her, but when something goes wrong and it turns out Thomas was a wolf in sheep's clothing, the Lord works His ways and her future husband comes to save her, showing her that her faith is stronger and she should follow her heart.
