The Man who fell to earth.

Like a scorching mirage, the stranger materialized from the sandswept Australian Dry -- as naked and nameless as a newborn babe. But even without his memory, he was every inch a man . . . A man whose missing past -- and eerily hypnotic presence -- might prove menacing to frontierswoman Mackenzie Conroy.

His mesmerizing masculinity made Mackenzie thirst for a deeper connection. But if she laid her body down in the illusive oasis of his arms, would she make memories to last a lifetime? Or would a cascade of miraculous passion evaporate into oblivion? All Mackenzie knew was that the rains were coming . . . and time was running out.
