While paint, fabric, and carpet are integral parts of a room scheme, it is the smaller details—whether a pretty edging on a blind or the way pictures have been grouped above a fireplace—that give a room personality. This handy resource collects the expert knowledge of an army of home stylists and provides a wide range of insider secrets for sprucing up any room with small creative additions. Eight sections each detail different types of projects, all of which are accompanied by a list of necessary supplies and easy-to-follow instructions.
