Punctuation: The Shortest, Simplest, Most Lighthearted Guide, Ever S.J. Sebellin-Ross

The goal was simple: to make punctuation easy. Maybe even fun. And the result is this: the shortest, simplest, most lighthearted guide to punctuation, ever.

You'll learn how to use the punctuation that has confounded you for years: the ellipsis, the semicolon, the double and single quotation marks, all the different dashes and their cousin, the hyphen, and more, including the always troublesome apostrophe.

And you'll learn it with clear and simple explanations. What? No time for even that? No problem -- there is also a fantastic cheat sheet when even a few paragraphs of explanation is too much.

Yes, you will finally learn everything you need to use punctuation properly. Quickly. Easily. And, best of all, with a little laugh now and then. Which is the best way to learn, and remember, anything.
