Strategies for Defending DWI Cases in New York provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on representing clients who are accused of driving while intoxicated. Featuring experienced criminal defense attorneys from across New York State, this book guides the reader through important changes to the DWI regulations, such as Leandra's Law, and other legal developments that are affecting this area. From the validity of portable breath test results and blood-breath ratio variability to the rise of video evidence and traffic checkpoints, these top lawyers discuss elements that are complicating today's DWI cases. These authors offer proven tactics for examining the stop, defending a client in a breath test case, and negotiating with prosecutors during a time of increased penalties. Additionally, these leaders examine new issues in discovery, including the latest technologies and how to use them to your client's benefit. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts on the keys to success within this specialized field.

Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business and legal intelligence from leading C-Level executives and lawyers. Each chapter offers thought leadership and expert analysis on an industry, profession, or topic, providing a future-oriented perspective and proven strategies for success. Each author has been selected based on their experience and C-Level standing within the business and legal communities.
