Always and Forever (The O'Neils Book 5) Kathryn Shay

Don't miss NEW YORK TIMES bestselling author, Kathryn Shay's stunning conclusion to the beloved O'Neil series.

"I thought the O'Neil books couldn't get any better, but book 5 was excellent. It had everything in it."

In ALWAYS AND FOREVER, a contemporary romance, Patrick O'Neil has always taken his responsibilities to heart. The first sibling in a passionate Irish family, he's there for his four Irish brothers and sister to listen, console and sometimes give them a swift kick in the butt. But his relationship with his wife Brie has been tumultuous from day one, and it hasn't changed in nearly twenty years. Both bear scars from their past. Though their marriage is in jeopardy, when Brie finds herself in the most terrifying situation of her life, it's Pat she needs during and after the ordeal.

Back-dropped by New York City, an authentic Irish Pub in Greenwich Village, the politics and romance in Washington D.C, this family saga will tug at your heartstrings and keep your pulse pounding. Edgy, sexy and emotional, the conclusion to the O'Neil series will surprise the reader in its emotional intensity and unique plotline.

"I loved the complexity involved in Patrick and Brie's relationship. I loved their heart for one another and their honesty. Even more, I loved their growth toward each other and their personal growth. This last book summed up the tenacity of the family's unbreakable spirit. I will miss them."
