Glory Dust T.J. Jack

They came from one Missouri family, but Lance and Buck Chaney had been fighting on opposite sides of the way --- until they were brought together by a shipment of gold dust. Fighting for the Confederacy, Buck had been ordered to hijack the gold his brother's Union troops were bringing north to Jefferson City. By the time the skirmish was finished, the Civil War was over and the shipment of gold was missing. Now the former enemies have joined together again --- to hunt down the man who had taken the gold from both in an act of treachery and bloodshed. Colonel Sam Armstrong had started a new life on a ranch in Texas. But what his gold was buying him was a whole lot of trouble and a hired killer gone out of control. When the Chaney brothers ride into Barlow, they're just in time for a fight --- a fight over the wrongs of the past and the future of an untamed land.
