Have you ever wondered about what will happen to your family's finances when all the climate change predictions come true? There are lots of articles and news reports that scare you about the future of our planet. Climate change is supposed to bring extreme weather, massive crop failures, and rising seas. Journalists keep frightening us with dire predictions but do not explain if there is anything that we can do to prepare ourselves for this future.

So what CAN you do, aside from recycling? This book will give you some ideas on how to prepare yourself financially. You will get practical suggestions on how you can invest in a way that you benefit from this future.

You will learn about:

- Selective climate change legislation and clean energy initiatives across the world
- Industries and companies that are poised to profit from these new climate change regulations
- Projected weather and social consequences of climate change
- Industries and companies that are poised to benefit from this profound world transformation
- How to invest so that you make a positive impact on the environment

Don't just stare helplessly into the future. If your house gets blown away by a hurricane, at least have the financial resources to rebuild!
