Beth is a 24-year-old big beautiful woman with long wavy auburn hair and green eyes. She's a homely girl still living with her mom and working as a waitress in a local diner called the Skylark. Her life is uneventful and each day passes by without incident, until she meets Jackson.

He's a 29-year-old slim and handsome guy with short black hair and blue eyes who just happens to be a billionaire. Jackson's the type of guy Beth normally steers well clear of as people with wealth generally view themselves as better than people like Beth and her mom.

Their initial meeting occurs when Beth's dog, Murphy runs on to Jackson's land. She's instantly attracted to him with his sexy and athletic physique and charming nature, he's funny, smart and chivalrous. He's thrilled to meet her and their friendship develops unbeknown to Beth's mom.

A Billion Reasons to Love You explores a secretive relationship between two people who are worlds apart.

Can Beth see through Jackson's wealth and discover his true identity, as an honest and loving guy?

Will he be able to love a girl with no money, living at home and working in a local diner?

Read on to see if Beth and Jackson become lovers or if their friendship fizzles out before it can ignite into anything more.
