Things About Men My Momma Told Me: Interracial Paranormal Romance Myra Angelou

A beautiful African American Woman is out of her mind with anger over the fact her Caucasian man has lied to her about having a vasectomy. His assurances that he didn't need a condom are like nails scraping down a chalkboard when her doctor tells her she is three weeks pregnant.

She now visits her dead mother's grave, lamenting the fact she never took her mother's advice of steering clear of sweet talking white guys who were up to no good when it came to committing to black women.

Her anger builds until she is a powder keg of dynamite, just waiting to explode. She senses that the spirit of her mother is leaving the grave to guide her into doing what must be done.

But will that be good news or bad news for her Caucasian boy friend!

This paranormal BWWM romance comes from the master of interracial stories.
