FARANG IN THAILAND: 99 THAI-KU POEMS ABOUT LIFE IN FUNNY STRANGE THAILAND, YOUR ADOPTED HOME (THAILAND TRAVEL Book 1) CHEF TUMMY

Farang in Thailand - Yes, You! This book is about your life, a life only you and your mates in Thailand understand. The Thailand expat life that has to be lived but you can't quite explain why. These brief poems say what you feel. You must have this book for your life to be complete.

Whether you are a Westerner living in Thailand or observant visitor, the complete contrast to life in the West becomes apparent immediately after arriving and leaving the plane.

Then, after living in Thailand for some time, that which is foreign and strange can become familiar.

This interplay between the bizarre and the familiar makes living in Thailand an exciting, odd journey. A long-stay foreigner can become a philosopher, especially as the ice rattles in the empty glass in the waning hours of Happy Hour. The deep questions abound: where is home? Who are these people smiling at me? Why is there always chilie in my food? Why is there not enough chilie in my food? Nong! Where are the chilies, please?

So I took a step back and prescribed myself some more medical Sang Som and wrote these observations about Thai culture from the perspective of that guy rattling the ice in the glass and wondering where the chilies are. Nong! Where are the chilies, please?

Some of these vignettes are from real experiences; some are from my imagination. All encapsulate part of the hard to explain Thailand experience.

- This book covers the important topics that are your life. Here are some of the Thai-Ku:
- we soon fell in love / wedding was just family / with eight hundred guests?
- I love my Thai wife / house car business in her name / can't afford divorce
- Teerack is busy / Facebook updates all day long / busy Thai lady
- Thailand's three seasons / there is hot, hotter and then / "I'm leaving this place"
- rainy season now / sheets of water from the sky / Nong come back to bed
- oh no our first fight / I know how to win her back / spicy tom yum gung
- Sang Som afternoon / Teerack left me with nothing /

- Thailand a strange land / boys will be boys up to you / boys will be girls, too

This book is a must-have for your collection. You must keep it with you in your mobile phone. You must order copies for your friends so they, too, can achieve wisdom. Your life will be better for having the book. Then you can try and explain the poems to your Thai friends. That will keep you busy.
