I Must Be Crazy is a series of romantic erotica short stories written in five episodes. The third episode in this series is Daily Dose. In Daily Dose, Sandra Levitt knows that she is settling by dating David Fray. Although he is good in bed, the man is boring, and has an attitude problem. It's a good thing that she finds out that after five months, he has been lying to her, before things had gone any further between them. Now that she's single, she now has the chance to go after the man who has been giving her many restless nights for years... her high school crush, Eric Morris.

Eric took a chance by following his heart, and coming to look for Sandra. He had been pining after her since grade school, yet never had the courage to make a move. Well, now that he'd found her, he was definitely going to make his move, and hopefully she'd let him make them all night long.

Let Angel B. draw you into Sandra's real life fantasy, and see how she handles a large dose of Eric Morris.
