All About Abby Erin McKenzie

Attorney Abby Beckwith is happily married – to her career. Her obsessive dedication and cutthroat tactics have been worth each personal sacrifice and every scorched relationship for she believes she's about to be named the youngest partner in history at the prestigious law firm of Prescott & Riley. With one final hurdle to surmount, Abby is certain the glorious honor will be bestowed upon her.

But when her arch rival and fellow co-worker cleverly sabotages Abby's promotion and steals it for herself, Abby's lifelong dream disintegrates before her eyes. Unable to control her outrage, typically composed Abby has a major meltdown in front of her superiors, and within seconds, the life she methodically built for herself abruptly ends. Because not only did she fail to make partner, she lost her beloved job as well.

For the first time in Abby's life, she has nothing to do, nowhere to go. Vowing to uncover the truth and reclaim her prominent position, Abby is determined to prove she was wronged. First things first though: she needs another job. Confident another high-profile law firm will hire her on the spot based upon her stellar reputation, Abby is infuriated when she realizes she's been blacklisted from every major law firm within a 100 mile radius.

Desperate, she accepts a job in a small town with the sloppiest, most unorganized attorney she's ever met. His idea of a juicy case is drafting a Will for the Mayor's grandmother. Abby doesn't know how she'll survive in such a cheerful, laid-back office. It isn't her within her personality to relax or "go with the flow". Bored stiff and humiliated with having a slobbery dog as an officemate, she fears her career will never be as challenging or as stimulating as it was at Prescott & Riley.

To Abby's amazement, however, her personal life and profession suddenly become very interesting. Never thinking she'd find someone who'd exceed her strict dating specifications, she's stunned by her good luck when she meets the man of her dreams. His only flaw? His best friend is her disheveled, carefree boss. Shortly thereafter, she stumbles upon a scandalous case that traces back to Prescott & Riley – and directly to her former rival. What Abby ultimately uncovers will not only redeem her honor but may also enact the exact revenge she's been seeking.

All About Abby...is a story about a severely uptight woman who adamantly believed her life and career were perfect and failsafe – until the unthinkable happened. Instead, she learns some hard lessons: perfect is a myth, everybody fails and even though revenge is sweet, enjoying life is even sweeter.
