Dante Grimaldi has traveled the world to track down an elusive rogue vampire and its cohorts who are responsible for the torment of his family. Now, they've crossed the final line by kidnapping the Grimaldi offspring. In a race against time to save his family, Dante will destroy anyone who gets in his way. Even the sexy shifter who has offered to help him in his search, if he has to.

Isis Vasquez fell for Dante at first sight. But there's one problem; she has a past connected to his enemies. It's redemption she's after when she offers assistance to the Grimaldi clan, really. Okay, but being close to Dante is a big added bonus. When they work together, the attraction is instant. The sexual tension threatens to set the world on fire. But will her secret tear them apart?

Author Note: This book is a revised version of a previously published book titled Dante's Wrath
