Land of the Brave and the Free (The Journals of Corrie Belle Hollister #7)

Michael Phillips, Judith Pella

Land of the Brave and the Free (The Journals of Corrie Belle Hollister #7) Michael Phillips, Judith Pella Pursued as a Union spy within Confederate territory, Corrie Belle Hollister's desperate attempt to escape on horseback was cut short by a slamming sensation in her back which was followed by an explosion of sound. The pain from the deadly bullet lasted but a moment - followed only by numbness. All sounds began to fade as she rode on, struggling to maintain her grasp on the horse's mane. Then even the silence faded into nothingness as blackness overcame the light.

Will Corrie discover the answers to life's most important questions. . .at the convent - in her writing - in the service of President Lincoln?

Will Corrie Ever Find the Home Where She Belongs?
