All Christians believe in prayer, but not all of them believe in God's willingness to answer all prayers. Many Christians believe that God answers prayer, but this belief is limited to occasional answers. On those occasions when He does answer, this answer is met with shock and surprise. However, apart from believing in God's willingness to always answer prayer, God's people will seldom pray or they will pray with little to no confidence. This not only brings failure in the individual Christian life but can hurt the cause of Christ as a whole. In this book, Troy J. Edwards will show you from the abundance of Scripture testimony the seldom talked about attribute of God: His willingness. You will understand that the promises of God are revelations of His will to bring about the answers we seek. Pastor Troy also refutes the unbiblical teachings of well known Evangelicals that promote unbelief in God's willingness to answer prayer.
