Everyone knows unemployment is a hard situation, especially when it drags on for months, even years. Do you know how to help a friend navigate through this stressful time of life? What to say, what to do? In this short booklet (54 pages, more than 50 strategies) you'll learn how to help in practical ways--without hurting a friend's pride, what you can do to minimize the expense of socializing, the questions to avoid asking, and much more. Unemployment won't last; gratefulness for your compassion will.
