Samantha Carey is a princess that has been left alone with her domineering uncle to hold the reins. She knows deep in her heart that her uncle is not one to be trusted and that her people need her to step up and do something to protect them and herself. In this regard, she turns to Michael an old friend that is hesitant to bring her into a life that she has never known before. He tells her that he knows of a man that can help her become the leader that her people need. His name is Finn McDonald of the highlander legacy. He's a warrior that knows how to fight, until there is only one left standing. He's hesitant to lend a hand and it's only after he learns of her uncle's duplicitous ways that he begins to think that maybe there is a way that this can benefit him. Her training is fierce and intensifies every day, unbeknownst that her Uncle Phillip is getting closer to bringing to bear the full weight of his wrath. Can their newfound love give them a way to fight back or is her uncle a mastermind that cannot be stopped?
