Angie leads a quiet and comfortable life...perhaps a bit too comfortable. When her roommate's favorite band, Killzone Flats comes to town, Angie plans her excuse as to why she can't attend.

Her roommate won't take no for an answer, especially since she got her hands on two backstage passes that lets them meet the band in person after the show.

When Angie accidentally mistakes the cleanly dressed and sexy lead guitarist for an employee of the venue, she feels like she's ruined any chances of connecting with the only normal-looking guy in the group of metalheads.

It turns out that Jon, the lead guitarist, has a few tattoos and piercings that aren't visible, and Angie finds herself wanting to let loose for a night and get in touch with her wilder side for a night...
