A thoughtful, personal, and affirming discussion of how Christian mothers can influence and prepare their daughters for confident living in today's culture.

This conversational book for Christian mothers of daughters is offered as encouragement to deflect and defend against the contemporary culture that promotes harmful attitudes about the self, the body, the mind, and the soul. Raising Godly Girls acknowledges the cultural expectations of both mothers and daughters, and confronts them with biblical wisdom and Christ's forgiveness. Chapters cover such topics as self-perception, influence of friends and parents, purity, influence of media, and more.
